

vehicles available.

Demo over gay marriage law

THOUSANDS of gay rights activists marched in Dublin city yesterday to demand same-sex couples have full civil marriage rights.

March For Marriage campaigners protested against the Civil Partnership Bill, which they claim treats them as second-class citizens.

Protesters maintain it leaves children of same-sex couples vulnerable and unprotected under Irish law.